Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Kilmacolm playgroup and Toddlers provides play and education in a safe, nurturing, fun and friendly environment. Children from age 2 years 4 months, up to school age can enjoy and benefit from up to 3 sessions a week run by experienced playleaders. This provides a developmental stepping stone to nursery. Our toddlers group provides a weekly play session for children from birth until 3 years, as well as offering a vital opportunity for parent and carers to find friendship and support within the local community.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The aim of the playgroup is to promote the aim of the Scottish Pre-School Play Association which is to advance the education of pre-school children so that they may take a constructive place in the community, and also the education of their parents and other adults, children and teenagers.
