Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation', 'the promotion of religious or racial harmony', 'the promotion of equality and diversity'

What the charity does: We are Scotland's national refugee charity. Every year, we support thousands of men, women and children as they rebuild their lives in Scotland. We believe that everyone seeking safety should receive the same warm welcome and respect, no matter where they're from or how they arrived. Our vision is of a Scotland in which all people seeking refugee protection are welcome. Our mission is to build a society where people of all ages are protected, find safety and support, have their human rights and dignity respected and are able to achieve their full potential. We work within an increasingly complex and interconnected system of services and policies which can be both welcoming to, and hostile towards, people seeking safety. In this ever-changing context, we offer. • A clear and courageous voice • Responsive, consistent and inclusive support • Expert information, advice and training • A collaborative approach • Decades of lived and learned experience • National leadership

Beneficiaries: 'People with a particular ethnic or racial origin', 'Other defined groups', 'Other charities or voluntary bodies'
