What the charity does: The Church has a principal objective of proclaiming the Gospel. We gather for worship each Sunday morning. Our evening service has continued to meet via Zoom. Congregation Report year ending 31 December 2024

1. Constitution and Principal Activities of the United Free Church of Scotland

The United Free Church of Scotland, with all the Churches of the Reformation, acknowledges as its Supreme Standard, the Word of God contained in the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments.

The Church holds as its Subordinate Standard the Westminster Confession of Faith; by its Declaratory Acts it recognises liberty of judgment on points of doctrine which do not enter into the substance of the faith; and it claims the right as duty may require, to interpret, add to, modify, or change her subordinate standards, under the promised guidance of the Holy Spirit, and with a direct responsibility to her Lord.

The Church approves the emphasis of the Declaratory Acts on the love of God for all mankind, the free offer of salvation to all, the obligation of the Universal Church to make known the Gospel throughout the world, and the renunciation of coercion, persecution and intolerance in matters of religion.

Accordingly this Church accepts the obligation to witness to the truth of the Gospel and to serve men in the name of Christ with regard alike to their spiritual and material welfare, both at home and overseas.

2. Responsibilities of the Congregation

As a Congregation of the United Free Church of Scotland this Congregation is under the jurisdiction and oversight of the superior courts of the Denomination i.e. the Presbytery of the North (in which this Congregation resides) and the General Assembly of the United Free Church in all matters pertaining to its spiritual and temporal (including financial) affairs. It seeks to exercise these obligations within its fellowship and to the people in the community of which it is part.

3. Responsibilities and Appointment of Office Bearers

All matters affecting the spiritual well-being and order of the Congregation is exercised by the Kirk Session of this Congregation. The Kirk Session consists of its Minister and ruling elders. All temporal affairs (including financial) of the Congregation are administered by the Deacons' Court of this Congregation. The Property Trustees of the Congregation are the Ex Officio Office Bearers named on page 2 of this Report. All property owned by the congregation is held in the name of the ex officio office bearers named on page 2 and five elders and one deacon appointed in terms of the Trust deed of the congregation.

The Minister of this Congregation is appointed by the Presbytery of the North. Elders, elected in accordance with the Practice and Procedure of the United Free Church of Scotland, along with members, elected by the Congregation at the Annual General Meeting or at a meeting of the Congregation specifically called for that purpose, form the Deacons' Court. Office Bearers are appointed by the Courts which they serve.

All offices of the Church are open to any member in full communion. Each Congregation appoints elders to the Presbytery and to be Commissioners to the General Assembly. Presbyterianism means the government of the Church by elders.

4. Activities and Achievements

The Church sought to continue its purpose through another year of worshipping, proclaiming and serving the Lord Jesus Christ.

We have gathered for worship each Sunday morning. Our evening service has continued to meet via Zoom video-link to worship and study God's word. We have also undergirded all of our work by meeting to pray for the church in Aberdeen, Scotland and the church in the wider world, as well as praying for the concerns of that wider world. We continue to sponsor a child in Ethiopia as she progresses in her educational journey.

We sought to raise our communication with the wider community via Facebook page, and also each week's sermon available on our web-site.

Our employment of a Community Outreach Worker came to a close this year. The Minister and others of the church have continued to work with the two Primary Schools and Secondary School linked with Torry.

We have also continued our work amongst children through the Boys Brigade and Girls Brigade Companies, which have been served by their leaders meeting in the Church and hall together with events for the parents..

We have also hosted a number of different community and council-based events and consultations.
