Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: Our primary goal is to bear witness about Jehovah by preaching about His Kingdom and what it will soon do for mankind. We promote belief in Jehovah God and teach that His Kingdom—a heavenly government ruled by Jesus Christ—will bring blessings to the earth in the near future. We also encourage people to live according to Bible principles. This preaching work was commanded by Jesus, as shown in scriptures such as Matthew 28:19–20. We carry out this commission in several ways, including door-to-door ministry, public cart witnessing, and offering free home Bible studies. In addition, we meet regularly at our place of worship to strengthen our faith in Jehovah's promises for the future and to receive training on how to be effective in our ministry.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the said congregation are identified with the purposes of the Society, and are specifically to advance the Christian religion, as practiced by the body of Christian persons known as Jehovah's Witnesses, in the local area

Objects and Activities:

10. The constitution restricts the operation of the Congregation to religious purposes and limits the use of its assets to such purposes, these being the practise and advancement of Christianity founded on the Holy Bible. The Congregation is organised on the basis of scriptural precedent and as otherwise recommended by the Society with which the Congregation is affiliated. During the year the Congregation has achieved its objects and continued to pursue its purposes by holding regular twice-weekly meetings for public worship of God and Bible study. Further, most congregation members have assisted by sharing regularly in preaching the good news of God's Kingdom and teaching principles of Christian living including respect for secular authority, persons, property; the maintenance of personal morality and family values; and other facets of practical Christianity.

Governance:

11. The affairs of the Congregation are managed by the trustees who as members of the charity work closely together. Meetings to discuss financial matters are arranged whenever required, being included in the regular religious meetings of the Congregation. All major decisions are made by formal resolutions at of congregation members as provided for in the directions from the Society. The Trustees and all other persons engaged in the activities of the Congregation have done so on an entirely voluntary unpaid basis. No expenses or remunerations were paid to Trustees, nor were there any financial transactions between the charity and Trustees, or any person connected to a Trustee.

Review of Year and Financial Developments:

12. The Congregation is funded by voluntary donations made by congregation members and others, supplemented by income from bank interest. Further, it is confirmed that the congregation's accounts comply with the directions of the Society and with all the relevant statutory requirements. There are no Notes to the Accounts, all relevant information having been included in this report. Throughout the year such funds have been used to provide facilities for the holding of regular weekly meetings for worship and Bible study. Donations have been made towards the cost of circuit assemblies and other conventions held during the year. Funds have also been donated to the Society to assist them in carrying out their related religious purposes.

Notable Receipts and Expenses:

18. However, during the year, a sum of £5,157.20 for the Society and the International Bible Students Association was sent to these charities.
19. In all respects the Congregation continues to co-operate closely with the other duly constituted congregations within the circuit and with the Society for the common purpose of advancing Christianity by preaching the good news of God's Kingdom by Jesus Christ.

Internal Controls:

20. Proper controls and procedures are adhered to, so that the monthly financial reports made to the Trustees and the congregation, accurately represent all transactions, are in balance and provide reasonable assurance that finances are being used for the intended purpose. A competent person checks the accounts on a quarterly basis, using guidelines prepared by the Society. The result is announced to the congregation.

Investment Policy:

21. The Trustees have the power to invest in any way they see fit but having regard to the soundness of the financial institution, and our Christian principles. Any funds that may be needed in the short term will be invested on that basis.

Reserves Policy:

22. The charity has a consistent income base, through donations from congregation members, some of which is by tax-effective means. Based on this income, we can plan confidently with relatively small reserves. The policy is to ensure that we have free reserves on hand, not designated for specific purposes or otherwise committed, equivalent to no less than 3 months working expenditure. At the yearend, the free reserves were roughly equal to 4 months working expenditure.

23. Approved by the Trustees of the charity on 12th June 2026 and signed on their behalf by:
