Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The prevention and relief of poverty.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

we have donated to the local scout group, many pensioners within the village and two families who have fallen on very tough times

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The investment fund has remained steady and has continued to provide a decent return to the charity, the funds have been distributed to several individuals and families within the village to aid in the relief of poverty or tough times (severe illness etc.). The charity is actively looking for opportunities to increase the presence within the village and the charitable donations it makes.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The charity has a sum of money that remains invested and managed by Rathbones Investments. This is a growth and income type fund, meaning we are paid dividends and interest from the investments but the fund should continue to grow. The charity only spends from the income received from the investments, the charity has ample cash reserves.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and • to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
