Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: The charity's objects and principal activities are to offer and provide support, friendship and practical help to families with at least one child under the age of five in their own home, who are experiencing some kind of difficulty and are living in the East Fife area. The main objectives and activities for the year continued to focus on the promotion of this objective. The strategies employed to assist the charity to meet these objectives included the following: • Providing a range of services which reflect the relevant quality standards and address the potential problems of the charity's supported families. • Working towards applying national standards of service. • Working in partnership with other agencies and charities to ensure the widest possible range of services is available to meet and match the needs of the charity's supported families.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The charitable objects for which the Company is established are: the safeguarding, protection and preservation of the good health, both mental and physical, of children and the parents of children where at least one child in the household is under five years of age by the prevention of cruelty or maltreatment of children, the education of the public in East Fife of better standards of child care and the relief of sickness, poverty and need amongst children and the parents of children.
