What the charity does: Assembly Theatre exists to promote, develop and support performing arts and artists. It does this via Assembly Roxy, a unique arts centre with three performance spaces that can be used for theatre, dance, spoken word, circus, music and more. 2025 will see the return of many of Edinburgh's festivals including the International Children's Theatre Festival, whom we are co-producing a piece with in collaboration with Imagineate, National Theatre of Scotland and Catherine Wheels Theatre Company. Also returning will be events as part of the Edinburgh Fringe and Edinburgh's Hogmanay as well as our supporting the grassroots arts in the city through our continued support through the ART Award in partnership with Assembly Festival. Arts events in the building are supported by commercial hires, where income generated is used to ensure the charity remains accessible for artists throughout the year.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The Company is established to promote and advance education by the production of educational plays and particularly by the production and touring of new plays and also for the encouragement of Arts, including the arts of drama, mime, dance, singing and music and to formulate, prepare and establish schemes therefore with special reference to the Arts in Scotland both nationally and locally provided that all objects of the Company shall be of a charitable nature.
