Structure, Governance and Management Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees.

All members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session Members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The Minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational Structure.

The Kirk Session, which is moderated by the Interim Moderator, meets at need and is responsible for spiritual affairs within the church

Objectives.

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine. Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in Policy. It exists to Glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish in Scotland through a territorial ministry.

It co-operates with other churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

At a local level, Millisle Kirk which is now a Union with Kirkinner, seeks to work together with its linked parish of Mochrum to serve the people of Sorbie, Garlieston, Kirkinner, Mochrum and the surrounding district.

Achievements and Performance.

This has been a year of change for us all, becoming a Union with Kirkinner and linking with Mochrum. Under the guidance of [REDACTED] our Interim Moderator, everything is falling into place and we were lucky enough to secure the services of the Rev Steve Fulcher as our locum, who is proving very popular and is working very hard in our various parishes.

Unfortunately we have not had any fundraising this past year. With all the changes, including sale of our hall, it has just not been possible to organise anything. We hope to rectify that this spring and are already planning.

Donations were made to Riverside Day Centre & [REDACTED]

Financial Review

The Church receives its main income from weekly offerings and Gift Aid , slightly up from 2023
Gift Tax rebate claim was £1999.15 Fabric repairs were £5136.21

There were no fundraising events this year as hall closed . The only extra income was from teas on a Sunday after service £243.39

Income from Funerals & Weddings was £700

As there is no manse ,there are no bills for oil etc.

Pulpit Supply was £2902.91 plus travelling expenses

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees' policy to hold reserves of six months expenditure including designated funds.
At this year end the Church held unrestricted cash funds of £33,632.71

Approximately £5566.01 is held by Church of Scotland General Trustees in Fabric revenue account
The Trustees are aware of the need to continually have reserves for repairing and maintaining the Church

The Market Value of Consolidated Fabric Fund is £55644.48

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

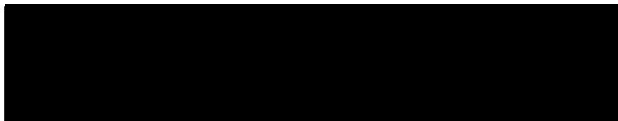

The members of the Kirk Session must ensure financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year.

The members of the Kirk Session are responsible for making sure proper accounting records are kept , which , on request , must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time.

This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment(Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007

They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf

Report of the Independent Examiner

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and examiner

The charity trustees consider that an independent examination is needed under section 44 (1) (c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under section 44 (1) (c) of the act and state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination of the statement of account for the year ended 31st December 2024 no matter has come to my attention

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect:
 - . accounting records have not been kept in accordance with Section 44 (1) (a) of the Charities and Trustee Investments (Scotland) Act 2005 and Regulation 4 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.
 - . the accounts do not accord with those records.
 - . the statement of account does not comply with any of the requirements of Regulation 9 of The Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulayions 2006.

2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
