Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of the Christian religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond. It is a condition of membership that a person requires to be admitted on profession of faith, or by resolution of the Kirk Session, and membership is required for participation in the Courts of the Church. Worship is open to all, as is the provision of pastoral support and inclusion in the Church-based community activities. The Church of Scotland has an "open" communion table to members of any branch of the Church. Outreach of the congregation is for all and not just members.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The advancement of religion.
