Structure, Government and Management

Governing Document

Inverness Trinity Dalneigh Church is administered in accordance with the terms under the Unitary Form Deed of Constitution.

Recruitment and appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. Normally the minister (Interim Moderator during vacancy) is Moderator of the Kirk Session and is elected by the congregation and inducted by the Presbytery.

Organisational Structure.

The Congregation of Inverness Trinity Dalneigh has a Kirk Session and three sub-Teams. Each of the Teams is made up of some elders from the Kirk Session and members of the congregation who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The Teams meet regularly and report back to the Kirk Session. The chair of the Teams is appointed by the Kirk session and each Team will appoint their Clerk.

The Kirk Session is responsible for the spiritual and financial oversight of the congregation. The Kirk Session usually meets five times a year but can convene more often as required. The elders of the congregation have a responsibility to visit the congregation regularly and encourage those for whom they have responsibility. They are supported by a Pastoral Care Team who visit the sick and housebound regularly. Furthermore, the elders dispense the elements of bread and wine at the Communion Services which are held 4 times a year.

The Finance Team deals with the financial oversight of the Congregation.

The Fabric Team deals with the maintenance and development of the buildings for which we have responsibility. Currently we have responsibility for the buildings previously used by Inverness Trinity and Inverness Dalneigh and Bona which comprise off one Church (Trinity church and hall buildings sold in June 2024) and one Hall and two Manses. The ground surrounding all the properties is also under the control of the Committee and is to be kept in a satisfactory condition.

The Mission Team deals with mission and outreach to the parish as well as pastoral care and the children's ministry within the congregation.

Objectives and Activities.

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. The Church of Scotland as part of the holy catholic church, worshipping one God, Father Son and Holy Spirit believes in the gospel of the sovereign grace and Love of God wherein through Jesus Christ, his only Son our Lord Incarnate, crucified and risen, He freely offers to all upon repentance and faith, the forgiveness of sins, renewal by the Holy Spirit and eternal life, and calls them to labour in the fellowship of faith for the advancement of God throughout the world. The Church of Scotland acknowledges the word of God to be the supreme rule of faith and life. The Church of Scotland holds as its subordinate standard the Westminster Confession of Faith.

The Church of Scotland acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with Churches of other denominations in Scotland and beyond.

The congregation of Inverness Trinity Dalneigh holds one act of public worship each Sunday in Inverness Trinity Dalneigh Church at 10:30am and an evening service at 6:30pm on the second and fourth Sunday of the month. The morning services are streamed by Zoom as a means of reaching those who cannot attend in person. The mid-week prayer meeting and bible study continues to meet on Zoom.

The following groups met regularly throughout the year:-

Prayer & Study Meeting every Wednesday evening at 7.30pm on Zoom.

Creche is available for young children when required during the morning service.

Sunday School meets weekly during the Sunday morning service.

Parent & Toddler's Group meets every 2nd Thursday morning during term time.

The Guild meets every 2nd Tuesday afternoon from October to April.

Kidzone a group for local primary aged children, meets every Wednesday evening from 6 – 7pm during term time.

Craft Group meets each Tuesday morning.

Boys Brigade (Junior Section and Company Section) meets on Thursday and Friday evening.

Coffee Mornings are held once a month on a Wednesday.

Orchestra: Inverness Symphony Orchestra meets in the Hall on a Monday evening for practice.

Achievement and Performance:

The congregation of Inverness Trinity Dalneigh Church met with some 60 to 70 meeting in the Church building for morning worship and 4 to 6 by means of Zoom and evening service has a regular attendance of 12 to 15.

Sunday School meets during the morning service with approximately 3 to 4 children attending. Creche is available during the morning service as and when required.

There are 42 children on the roll for Toddler Group with approximately 28 -30 children regularly attending the group on alternate Thursday mornings.

Inverness Trinity Dalneigh Guild has approximately sixteen members.

Kidzone has a roll of 36 children who meet on a Wednesday evening.

Boys Brigade has a roll of 32 boys in different sections with meetings being held on Thursday and Friday evenings.

Our Interim Moderator, [REDACTED] conducted Sunday worship three Sundays a month with two elders taking the other services. In partnership with the elders, he visited the sick in hospital and made home visits. He also conducted several parish funerals.

The Elders have overall responsibility for the care of the congregation and are supported by the Pastoral Visitation group who visited/stayed connected with members of the congregation in liaison with the elders. This group had responsibility for organising regular social events and Coffee Mornings as a means of outreach to the wider community.

The elders are faithful and attend most of the worship services regularly. The midweek meetings are held on Zoom and are led by six different members of the congregation. Fourteen to eighteen members regularly attend this meeting. Financial giving from these meetings is used to support people in Christian ministry at home and abroad. On occasions, we were able to hear from many more people via Zoom, some coming in from as far afield as Marseille.

Financial Review:

Income for the year ended 31 December 2024 increased by £108,645, from £83,849 in 2023 to £192,494 in 2024. The bulk of this was £54,110 transferred from Inverness Trinity Church after the union with Inverness Dalneigh and Bona Church. Other one-off amounts were: £10,000 gifted from the estate of a Church member. There was £33,703 from the General Trustees to cover fabric costs and a £11,000 grant to cover the cost of the boys Brigades' new minibus.

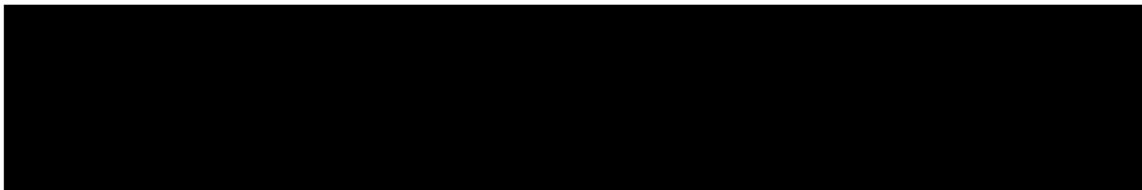

The principal source of income is a Weekly Free Will offering envelope scheme and the open plate. The increase in giving was £4,531, 14.8% greater than the 2023 figure. This is as a result of the union of Inverness Dalneigh and Bona Church and Inverness Trinity Church. 2024 was the first full year of the current charge of Inverness Trinity Dalneigh. At each Kirk Session Meeting the trustees are given written details of the financial position of the church finances. When the congregation is given details of the church finance, the members are encouraged to switch to the freewill offering scheme and, if the person pays income tax, they are encouraged to sign a Gift Aid declaration form. The Thanksgiving Appeal was well supported, and again, £2,725 was donated.

Reserves Policy:

It is the Trustees policy to hold reserves of approximately six months expenditure including designated funds. As of 31st December, the Church held unrestricted funds of £59,717 of which £18,055 is designated for various groups or projects set aside by the Trustees. The remaining balance of £41,662 represents about 6 months' normal expenditure, including fabric costs.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities:

The members of the Kirk Session must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The members of the Kirk Session are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Account (Scotland) Regulation 2006 and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Inverness Trinity Dalneigh Church of Scotland

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 8 to 15.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

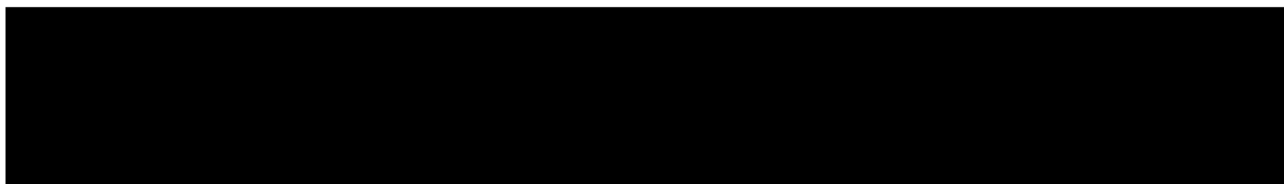

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
