Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: For over 40 years Simeon has provided dignified care to hundreds of older people in our care home in Bieldside, Aberdeen. In our 23 bed care home, we offer residential, nursing, palliative and end of life care for those who need support due to conditions such as dementia, learning disabilities, cancer, motor neurone disease and other age-related frailties. We are proud to hold an outstanding reputation for the quality of our care. Families have peace of mind knowing their loved one is receiving the best possible care for every day of their life, supported by people who know them, value their life story and help them find purpose in daily life.

Beneficiaries: 'Older People'

Objectives: To provide homes and sheltered housing for the elderly, physically and mentally handicapped and for those who are unable to find a place, temporarily or permanently, in the social order. and to create conditions calculated to affect favourably their physical, moral and mental welfare and, as far as possible, to enable them to take their place as responsible citizens of the community.
