Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of human rights, conflict resolution or reconciliation'

What the charity does: Family Journeys supports children and families throughout their journey toward healthy, respectful, and nurturing relationships. We focus on supporting families in a safe and supportive space to rebuild relationships and create successful co-parenting arrangements. Family Journeys provides services, a safe space, tools, and resources to support children in developing and maintaining positive connections with their parents and family members when relationships have been disrupted or strained.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The objects for which the Company is established are to offer a range of services including family mediation, child contact and other relevant family support interventions to assist and support families through separation. In particular, the Company offers services to children and young people, parents, step-parents, grandparents, adoptive parents and others in the extended family circle who require support during family break up. The Company also aims to assist families to find amicable solutions to problems and issues raised by separation.
