Type of Governing Document

The Church is a charitable unincorporated association, and its beliefs, practices and administration are set out in its Constitution dated 1 March 1971. The church elders are responsible for the oversight of the activities of the church.

Trustees selection and appointment

The existing Trustees, all of whom are elders are entitled to appoint additional Trustees as may be necessary.

Risk Assessment

The Trustees have reviewed the risks associated with the church and its activities. Two key risks have been addressed by ensuring that the buildings are adequately insured and that there is a Child Protection Policy. This latter policy is regularly reviewed, and it is seen as a live, operational document.

Objectives

1. To carry on the activities of a local church in a way which is consistent with the Bible.
2. To benefit the local community through a range of church activities.
3. To advance the Christian Gospel in the town of Ayr.

There is also a Ladies Meeting, Coffee Morning and Tots for children as well as a number of other services for adults.

From its funds the church supports missionary and related work in the UK and overseas.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT to the Trustees of Woodpark Evangelical Church

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ending 28 February 2025, which are set out on pages 1 to 2.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended)
("the 2006 Regulations"). The charity's Trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Account Regulations does not apply.
It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the 2005 Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with these records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the following Requirements have not been met: -

- (a) the requirement to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- (b) the requirements to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations.

In my opinion there are no additional matters to which attention should be drawn in order to reach a proper understanding of the accounts.
