Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the saving of lives', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Antonine Court in Glasgow provides high-quality day care for adults and young people with additional support needs. They offer personalized care plans, fostering independence and well-being through activities like art, music, and outings. They support 40 individuals with full-time and part-time placements and have expanded services to include 'Antonine Allstars' for young people. Antonine Court is committed to exceptional care and plans to rebuild a state-of-the-art facility to meet growing demand.

Beneficiaries: 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: The company's objects are: (a) to provide, and encourage and assist others to provide, social, recreational and educational facilities and support structures for people with disabilities and carers of such disabled persons living or working in Glasgow and for residents of that area who are of state poverty. (b) to advance the welfare of needy disabled persons by providing assessments, advice and support and a coordinating function with local employers and training and welfare organisations with a view to assisting such persons in obtaining paid employment. (c) To liaise with, and assist, statutory authorities and voluntary organisations engaged in advancing the welfare of disabled persons and carers of disabled persons. And in furtherance of the above objectives to promote integration of people with disabilities with the wider community by enabling adult residents of Greater Drumchapel (as defined by G15 post code) access to Antonine facilities and programmes which will also achieve wider community development outcomes.
