Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: We were established to support the development of young people. We achieve this by running a youth club. We have 350 attendees each week and we provide activities including the Duke of Edinburgh's Award, Youth Achievement Awards and take young people on Outward Bound activities. We run 11 age appropriate clubs each week as well as having dedicated boys and girls groups. Every person who comes to our club receives a hot meal. Everything we offer we offer at no cost to the recipient or their family.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The Objects for which the Club is established (the 'Objects') are the advancement of education, citizenship and community development and in particular: 3.1. to ensure that all children and young people in Scotland develop the knowledge, skills and attributes they will need to flourish in life, learning and work, now and in the future. 3.2. to enable each child or young person to be a successful learner, a confident individual, a responsible citizen and an effective contributor.
