Trustees' Annual Report

Year ended 31 December 2024

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Unitary Deed of Constitution.

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational Structure

Under the Unitary Constitution the work of the Kirk Session is undertaken by four teams made up of Elders and congregational members. The teams are namely: Property, Finance, Worship and Hospitality.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

We have our weekly Service of Worship on a Sunday, and now have Holy Communion every three months. We are still broadcasting our Sunday Service on various outlets, and these Services are being seen worldwide, with people from around ten countries joining us for Sunday worship. At Christmas we sell bows for our Christmas tree and receive cards from our members, rather than giving individual cards, which include a donation. These donations plus our Christmas Eve and Christmas Day offerings are split between two charities, one in Scotland and one abroad. Part of these amounts was outstanding at the year end.

We continue to work hard to serve our local community and our monthly community cinema continues to show the latest films available and is free to anyone. We also provide free juice and ice cream. Every Wednesday we hold a free coffee morning and people are welcome to pop in for a coffee and a chat.

The groups which meet in the Church continue to function well. Are You Still Game meets once a month on a Friday with a very varied agenda and this has proved to be a well-attended afternoon of fun. Our craft group meets monthly and our bi-weekly singing group, which has around 20 members, is now in its third year.

Since February we have been joined by [REDACTED] from the Presbyterian Church of Nigeria, on a familiarisation placement and Michael has started a weekly prayer meeting and a weekly bible study.

We continue to have strong ties with our local primary school, community centre and nursing home and work well with other community organisations and ecumenical partners.

Financial Review

Our principal source of income is congregation members' offerings. Many of our members have continued to donate directly through the Bank, and we are very grateful for this as it helps to maintain a regular income stream. A proportion of these are gift aided, and the tax recovered is an important source of income.

We held a Christmas Fair in November 2024 and it was great to see the Church buzzing with activity once again whilst raising £2,883.

We received £8,576 from the investment held by the General Trustees on the congregation's behalf in the Consolidated Fabric Fund Revenue account. (See Appendix). We may use this fund to cover repairs and maintenance costs, and also property insurance and heat and light.

In 2023 the family of church members kindly donated £5,000 in their memory and specifically asked that these funds be used to upgrade the Church audio visual system. This work was undertaken during 2024 and the accounts show the restricted fund brought forward at the beginning of the year being fully spent.

Last year's review referred to the decision to upgrade our CCTV system, due to a spell of vandalism. This work, including new additional cameras to ensure the whole of the Church's property is covered, was completed and paid for in 2024, costing £3,511. This cost, along with the other fabric expenditure on the church and the manse which amounts to £2,493, will be recovered from the Consolidated Fabric Fund Revenue account, as described above.

Reserves Policy

By 31 December 2024 our reserves had decreased to £16,871 and it was decided to amalgamate the general and fabric funds. The Kirk Session will discuss what steps might be taken to improve the financial position in 2025, including making further draw downs from the available funds in the Consolidated Fabric Fund.

Trustees' Annual Report

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The members of the Kirk Session must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The members of the Kirk Session / Congregational Board are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Session Clerk

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of St. Martin's Parish Church

I report on the financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2024 set out on pages 6 to 12.

Respective responsibilities of the trustees and the independent examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply.

It is my responsibility to examine the financial statements under section 44(1) (c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's report

My examination was carried out in accordance with the general Directions given by the Charity Commission and is in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the financial statements.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1) which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in, any material, respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations and,
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Regulations, have not been met; or
- 2) to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the financial statements to be reached.
