Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session and the Congregational Board are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery. The Congregational Board is appointed from within the congregation and members of the congregation are invited to nominate individuals who are believed to have the skills and commitment to contribute to the management affairs of the Church, to become members of the Board. Board Members are then appointed at the Stated Annual Meeting and serve for a period of three years after which they must seek re-election at the next Stated Annual Meeting.

Organisational Structure

The Congregational Board is chaired by the minister and meets three times in a year. Certain responsibilities are delegated to the Finance Committee and the Property Committee as appropriate. The Kirk Session which meets three times a year is responsible for spiritual affairs within the church.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

Services are conducted each Sunday at 10.00 am. The Sunday School (Suspended at Present) meets in the Haugh of Urr Village Hall

Achievements and Performance

Attendances at Church vary between 10 and 20 People. There were 0 Funerals carried out in Church and 3 Weddings conducted from the Church this year.

Financial Review

The principal source of income is the weekly offerings (Including Gift aid), which has seen a decrease of 39.15% from the previous year.

A generous bequest of £29,483.42 was received from [REDACTED].

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees' policy to hold reserves of approximately six months expenditure including designated funds. At the year end the Church held under local control £91,107. Of this sum, £33,497 has been designated for Fabric Fund. Although this exceeds the amount stated in the policy, the Trustees believe it is prudent to retain these funds to ensure future expenditure can be met.

Funds of £104,081 are held by the Church of Scotland General Trustees on behalf of the congregation and the income from these funds is available to meet certain types of Fabric expenditure. Investments with a market value of £16,758 are held with Church of Scotland Investors Trust.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The members of the Kirk Session / Congregational Board must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The members of the Kirk Session / Congregational Board are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees on

URR PARISH CHURCH
INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES OF URR PARISH CHURCH

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st December 2024, which are set out on pages 5 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination was conducted in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity, and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

5. Minister's Stipend

All Church of Scotland congregations contribute to the National Stipend Fund which bears the costs of all ministers' stipends and employer's contributions for national insurance, pension and housing and loan fund. Ministers' stipends are paid in accordance with the National Stipend Scale, which is related to years of service. For the year under review, the minimum stipend was £31642 and the maximum stipend (for the 5th and subsequent year of service) was £38884

6. Collections for Third Parties

In addition to the General Income Fund recorded in note 3, the following income from Special Collections was received and disbursed during the year to other charities.

	2024 £	2023 £
Christian Aid	£ -	£ -

7. Statement of Accounting Policies

The Accounts are prepared under the historical cost convention on a receipts and payments basis. Fixed assets acquired are therefore written off to expenditure in the year of acquisition.

Heritable properties, consisting of the Church, Hall and Manse, are not recorded in the Accounts, being vested in the Church of Scotland General Trustees

Normal fabric repairs and maintenance are charged to the Congregation's General Fund. Extraordinary fabric repairs and improvements are met by the Fabric Fund and / or by special fund raising efforts
