What the charity does: Haddington Concert Society was set up to promote and encourage the study, practice and knowledge of music in Haddington and the surrounding district. Each year we present a winter season of 6 or more chamber-music concerts featuring internationally renowned musicians and rising stars of the concert world. We aim to nurture cultural life in the community by promoting serious music, giving new music a hearing alongside master works, encouraging local performers, young and old, and making our fine Bösendorfer available for community use. All are welcome to our concerts. under-26 year-olds are admitted free of charge.
