Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: The Group is a trust established under its rules which are common to all Scouts. The trustees are appointed in accordance with the Policy, Organisation and Rules of the Scout Association, with Scottish variations. The Group is managed by the trust board, the members of which are the 'Charity Trustees' of the Scout Group, which is an educational charity. The purpose of The Scout Association is to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society. Scouting in the United Kingdom is organised into Scout groups, Scout Districts, Scout Counties (Scout Regions in Scotland) and Country Headquarters. These 'units' of Scouting provide support channels for communication. opportunities for youth Members and adults to make decisions and take responsibility. and functional units through which the design and delivery of the youth programme can be best achieved.
