Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: The Friends of Loch Lomond and The Trossachs is the only independent conservation and heritage charity working for the benefit of Loch Lomond and The Trossachs National Park. The key aims are: • Protecting and nurturing the special qualities of the National Park. • Promoting and celebrating the natural and cultural heritage of the National Park. and • Providing support for projects to make the National Park a better place for people and nature. The aims are fulfilled through campaigns, projects, events and commenting on planning applications and relevant policy consultations.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the Society are, by charitable means only:- (a) to cherish, protect and enhance the natural beauty, amenity and character of Loch Lomond, its islands and the surrounding countryside. (b) to promote and encourage the preservation, conservation and improvement of features of public amenity or historic interest within the above area. (c) to promote and encourage an energetic and consistent implementation of good planning policies appropriate to the above area and consistent with these objects. (d) to stimulate public interest in these objects by means of publications, meetings, exhibitions, appeals and other forms of publicity. (e) to co-operate with other bodies to promote the foregoing objects.
