Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education','the advancement of religion','the advancement of citizenship or community development','the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The purpose of the charity is to help increase awareness and understanding of torah true judaism. We do this by sponsoring and supporting establishments such as Schools and Yeshivahs, who educate youth for a Torah True Life, and kollelim, for senior students in preparation for becoming teachers and rabbonim. We also give grants to individual senior rabbinical students whom we judge will play a prominent role in Jewish leadership and education in the future. We give financial support to rabbinic students who are under financial pressure.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people','Older People','People with a particular ethnic or racial origin','Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: The aim of the Kollel is to introduce a higher standard of Orthodox Jewish Religious knowledge, appropriate for the members of the Glasgow Jewish Community and in doing so establish Kolleldi and other similar orthodox Torah educational institutions in Glasgow and elsewhere both in the United Kingdom and abroad either independently or as joint ventures with other orthodox Jewish Associations with similar aims.

1

The Glasgow Kollel has been a registered charity since 1 January 1992. Charity Number SCO15742. The address is : [REDACTED]

The Charity Trustees during the year ended 31 January 2025 were:-

The main objectives of the charity are the advancement of education, religion, civic responsibility, community development, arts, heritage, culture and science.

The trustees have the authority to appoint new trustees, as the need arises. A new trustee would receive copies of the previous year's Annual Report and Accounts and a copy of the Charity Commission Leaflet 'The Essential Trustee-what you need to know'.

The trustees have the authority to invest the Charity's funds, but no such investments have been made this year. In the current year, the Charity received donations of 14,350 in addition to rent of 120,870. Distribution of student grants was 75,342.

We now make larger grants to Yeshivas and Kollelim, establishments of higher Torah and Rabbinical study in many parts of UK and in Israel. We also continue to make grants to independant students who show promise of becoming leaders and rabbis. Our activities in Israel have stabilized and it is expected that there will be further development in Scotland. All known risks have been considered and assessed. The charity generally does not hold reserves, as income is usually distributed as it is received.

The administration of the charity is carried out by the trustees. The Trustees did not receive any remuneration from the Charity during the year, nor were they reimbursed for any expenses incurred on behalf of the Charity, besides travel expenses.

Trustees' responsibilities

The Trustees are required under the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the Charity's financial activities during the year and its financial position at the end of that year. In preparing financial statements giving a true and fair view, the trustees should follow best practice and;

- (a) Select suitable accounting policies and apply them consistently;
- (b) Make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- (c) State whether applicable accounting standards and statements of recommended practice have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements;

(d) Prepare the financial statements on a going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume to that the Charity will continue in operation.

The Trustees are responsible for keeping accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy the financial position of the Charity and which enable them to ascertain that the financial statements comply with applicable law and regulations. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

This report was approved by the Trustees on 13th November 2025 and signed on behalf of them.

I report on the accounts of the Trust for the year ended 31 January 2025, which are set out on pages 4 to 5.

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

As the Charity's Trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the Accounts; you consider that under regulations 10(1) (d) of the Charity Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 that an independent examination is needed. It is my responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the general direction given by the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulators and section 44(1) (c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's report opinion

My examination was carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006, the general direction given by the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator. My examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeking explanations from you as Trustees concerning any such matters. I herewith report that no matter has come to my attention, which would indicate that, in any material respect, accounting records have not been kept, or the accounts do not accord with those records. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given the accounts.
