Trustees' Annual Report

Year ended 31 December 2024

Structure, Governance and Management

Governing Document

The Church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution (Unitary Form)

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery.

Organisational Structure

Since 2010, the Unitary constitution within church law has been the mode of governance. There is therefore one court, the Kirk Session, which oversees both spiritual and temporal matters at Calderbank. Reports are regularly brought to the Kirk Session, on finance, property, Presbytery matters and worship and mission.

Objectives and Activities

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, Reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

A weekly service is held on a Sunday at 9:30am and is open to any and all. At present there is no regular Sunday school but there is a regular programme, in afternoons, of "Messy Church" – an alternative form of worship and learning for families. Annually, there is a joint service with Corpus Christi RC Church to mark the Week of Prayer for Christian Unity, and so to bring the different Christian traditions together. The Guild meets weekly, with a varied programme of guest speakers; it also takes the lead in organising concerts and the annual senior citizens Christmas dinner and party which is open to all senior citizens within the parish. The church choir meets each week and participates in Sunday worship. A church website is actively maintained (www.calderbankchurch.co.uk) along with a "Facebook" page.

The Brownies and Boys' Brigade also meet on a weekly basis during the school term. The Minister acts as chaplain to Calderbank Primary and the Minister has been a regular visitor to the school to strengthen our involvement in the life of the school, both on their premises and on ours,

Achievements and Performance

A number of outside agencies use church premises during the week (dance and martial art classes and bookings made by individuals on an ad hoc basis). A Macmillan Coffee morning has been held annually, and community fairs twice a year. A very successful Holiday Club for children was hosted during the summer holidays.

The membership roll was 107 at end of December 2024. On average 45 members/adherents attend each week and regular new faces joined us through 2024. The Guild's membership is 13. Since Covid Lockdown, we still have a digital offering via YouTube, ("Cairnlea and Calderbank"). Messy Church numbers have been on the increase, at best nearly matching Sunday morning numbers. A monthly church newsletter, delivered around homes, and available online keeps the congregation well informed.

Our Airdrie Foodbank project has continued and during the year help supported 1807 adults and 402 children (total 2209) within the Airdrie & Coatbridge Area. 15 Tonnes of food was distributed and 16 tonnes were donated by members of the public, schools, churches and businesses. We have been unable to increase our volunteer team but still have a core group of 18 volunteers who give their time regularly and freely. We are pleased that we have managed to retain the services of one paid employee which is the Operation Co-ordinator post. The post being funded by the Trussell Trust until February 2026. The Church continued its partnership with two Churches in Airdrie to host distribution points. The foodbank is open on a Wednesday at St. Edward's RC Church and a Friday at Airdrie Baptist Church. We also received support from our linked partner, Cairnlea Parish Church of Scotland.

Following the approval of Presbytery's Mission Plan in June 2024, the Kirk Session has continued to discuss the way forward with the proposed plan for our cluster, and how we shape the future of the Church in our parish.

Ministry costs are payable to the Central Stipend Fund of the Church of Scotland. These continued through 2024 by monthly payments and were met in full. We also encourage our membership to give by standing order.

Financial Review

The principal source of income is via weekly offerings. In 2024 weekly givings via Gift Aid and WFO were decreased by £1,199 on the previous year. Our fundraising events raised £4,781 – a reduction of just under £446. We continued to see good utilisation our halls for various groups however, a few groups stopped and this meant a reduction of income of £919 on the previous year with the 2024 amount being £1,522.

General expenditure was generally in line with previous years. Heat & Light was higher as expected. Total energy costs for 2024 was £7,885 – an increase of £2,013 on the previous year. Fabric expenses was £2,190 for 2024 and was mainly to deal with emergency type repairs and maintenance to comply with various regulations (Electrical, Gas and general safety matters). The ongoing running and capital costs for Airdrie Foodbank were covered by grant awards and other financial donations.

Two funds were closed during the year (Manse Maintenance Fund and Premium Account) as these have been inactive for many years and the balance upon closing of both was transferred to the General Fund. Total of £645.

Reserves Policy

It is the Trustees' policy to hold reserves. At the year end the church held £87,214 in reserve. The amount being unrestricted £11,707 of which £5,180 is designated for fabric fund. We believe the reserves are acceptable for the mission work of the Church and on-going maintenance of the Church building.

The Church also held £75,507 of restricted funds which have been provided for the purposes specified in Note 2 ; In addition to these funds the Church holds investments which had a market value of £15,274 at 31st December 2024 (Purchase cost £11,898)

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The members of the Kirk Session must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The members of the Kirk Session are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf,

Report of the Independent Examiner

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 1 to 10.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity trustees consider that an independent examination is needed under section 44(1)(c) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than disclosed below]*

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
