Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Ayrshire Cancer Support is set up to provide practical and emotional support for people affected by cancer in Ayrshire, at every stage of the cancer journey. We do this by offering a diverse range of free support services from our drop-in centres, in hospital wards across Ayrshire, and where necessary, at home. Services are offered to cancer patients and their families and include: patient transport, professional counselling, bereavement support, complementary therapies, support groups, courses and workshops, drop-in facilities, bespoke support options for children and young people, provision of patient information leaflets, and cancer support specialist appointments providing advice and information around cancer care and support.

Beneficiaries: 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: 5 The company's objects are: - 5.1 To reduce the symptoms and anxieties of a cancer diagnosis, or other debilitating, life altering and life limiting conditions in any manner which now is or hereafter may be deemed by law to be charitable. 5.2 To provide transport to patients receiving cancer treatment at hospital or other community setting. 5.3 To provide professional counselling services and a range of complementary therapies and support groups for those affected by a cancer diagnosis. 5.4 To educate and empower people in a positive approach to living with cancer or life altering or life limiting conditions. 5.5 To provide respite and drop-in facilities for those affected by cancer, and others affected by conditions as in article 5 .1 above. 5.6 To provide community hubs and outreach facilities for the benefit of patients and their families. 5.7 To conduct scientific research into the psychological health and wellbeing of cancer-related conditions and to collate and disseminate information there anent. 5.8 To pursue all objects consistent or compatible with any of the foregoing purposes.
