in Irvine, after being dormant for a few years.

This trend is set to continue with new sections being introduced and waiting lists being addressed. Plans are well under way for a District

Camp to be held in June at Lapwing Lodge. Further information will be circulated in the near future.

He also reported that a large number of young people had been successful in obtaining the highest award within their sections and a presentation evening had been arranged to recognise their achievements. A number of adult awards had also been presented on that evening.

The District Lead informed the meeting that he was standing down from his present role to take on the role of Lead for the South West Region. Those present wished him well in his new role and presented him with a small gift in recognition of his hard work over the past two years.

He then introduced [REDACTED] who he had appointed as his successor in the role of district lead.

The meeting concluded with a presentation by some of the young people who had attended the Blair Atholl Jamboree last summer.

Trustees remuneration and expenses

None of the trustees received any remuneration during the year.

Any expenses incurred on behalf of the district were reimbursed.

Reserves

During the year the district's reserves increased from £14502 to £15153, an increase of £651 during the year.

The trustees consider that this balance is sufficient to fund the ongoing activities of the district.

Approved by the trustees and signed on their behalf.

On the accounts of the charity for the period	Period start date				Period end date
	Day	Month	Year		Day	Month	Year
	1st	January	2024	to	31st	December	2024
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
