Objectives and activities

Our all voluntary organisation, Adventure Sailing Trust, purpose is to raise funds and distribute them to disadvantaged individuals through the provision of grants to allow them to participate in recreational and sporting activities, the principal activities being water sport based, which will further the following purposes:

- The advancement of public participation in sport.
- The provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended.
- The relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage.

Associations and any other organisations who provide services, projects or facilities in Scotland that are in keeping with the purposes detailed above may apply for funding.

Achievements and performance

This year, 2023 - 2024, members of the Adventure Sailing Trust board have been proactive by reaching out to new groups and our core supported groups in areas of multiple deprivation in the Central Belt of Scotland, namely Glasgow, Dundee, Greenock, and Lanarkshire areas.

Monies distributed to supported groups and organisations this year have been used to financially support children from isolated and vulnerable families to experience a range of activities and experiences, including water based sports. This year we have provided financial support towards:

- A Youth Project Programme in Glasgow, who work together to deliver a Life Skills programme to young people who are in kinship care. The young people are made up of 2 groups, 8-11 years and 12-16 years. A wide range of activities are provided to develop social, emotional, physical, creativity, self awareness and personal safety activities. Some of the outdoor activities included archery and canoeing during their annual residential stay. This well balanced programme helps the young people become more confident, responsible and successful individuals.
- Young people have had the opportunity to experience a wide range of outdoor activities including wild swimming while taking part in a weekend camp within the Clyde Valley area.
- Water activities at Strathclyde Park Watersports Centre were enjoyed by a group of youth who finished their day with a barbeque.
- Tubing at Bellahouston Ski Centre. This experience was thoroughly enjoyed during an evening visit.
- A range of games and sporting activities has been provided by a group to offer respite to their young disadvantaged children who are experiencing crisis family situations.
- A Water Sports Centre, based in Glasgow, gave young people new experiences - kayaking, canoeing and raft building. This experience also gave the young people knowledge of a fun outdoor facility within a short bus ride away from their home.
- Children enjoyed a visit to Air Thrill in East Kilbride where friendships were strengthened and trusting relationships could be built on. A fabulous experience for the young people where they could bounce their worries away for a short time.

The Adventure Sailing Trust, this year has received more applications for funding and we have been able to offer grants to groups and organisations throughout many areas of deprivation in central Scotland to support children in outdoor activities and watersports.

Although our funding has fallen this year, due to the ongoing difficult economic climate, we have distributed funding, which had not previously been allocated post pandemic due to the lack of applications at that time.

Financial review

The Adventure Sailing Trust recognises that there is a need to carry an appropriate level of reserves to provide a margin of safety in the event of temporary difficulties with funding and to enable our charity to take advantage of development opportunities if presented. The Trustees have discussed and considered that a reserve of £600 would be held for this purpose.

Future Plans

Through experience and discussions this year, the Trustees have identified the following areas to explore for the year ahead.

- To continue contact with existing groups to discuss their plans and programmes for the year ahead. Thus identifying how best to support them in line with the purposes and objectives of the Trust.
- To explore further sources of funding to continue supporting the young people from areas of multiple deprivation in line with our Aims and Objectives,
- To work in partnership with local authority service providers to identify the areas / local groups which would benefit from financial support.
- Having taken advice and explored the option of developing the shore-based land, further discussions with Trustees and contractors will take place throughout this coming year.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
