Activities

Activities: 'It does none of these'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health'

What the charity does: NHS Grampian Charity is the official charity of NHS Grampian. We are responsible for managing the generous donations made by supporters to ensure that they are used to provide benefits for patients and staff, to enhance services and to provide support in our communities. We want to ensure patients have the best possible healthcare experience and we award grants to NHS Grampian services and staff, researchers, charities and community organisations to support projects which enhance health and wellbeing. The donations we receive are only used to enhance the services of NHS Grampian and do not replace statutory responsibilities. Everything NHS Grampian Charity supports is for the benefit of patients and for the health and wellbeing of the people of Grampian.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: Section 82 of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 establishes the endowments to be held by the Health Board: — (1) All endowments vested in a Health Board by virtue of section 37 of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1972 are so vested free of any trust existing immediately before 1st April 1974 (hereafter in this section referred to in relation to any such endowment as “the original trust”). but all such endowments shall be held by the Health Board on trust for such purposes relating to services provided under this Act in or in relation to hospitals, or to the functions of the Board with respect to research, as the Board may think fit. (2) All property vested in a Health Board by virtue of section 39 of the said Act of 1972 is so vested free of any trust existing immediately before the said 1st April (hereafter in this section referred to in relation to any such property as "the original trust'). but all such property shall be held by the Health Board on trust for such purposes relating to services provided by them under this Act, or to the functions of the Board with respect to research, as the Board may think fit (3) In exercising the power conferred on them by this section in relation to any endowment or property a Health Board shall secure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that the objects of the original trust (including, in the case of an endowment, the objects of the endowment) and the observance of any conditions attaching thereto, including, in particular, conditions intended to preserve the memory of any person or class of persons, are not prejudiced by the exercise of the power. Section 1 of the 1978 Act sets out the general purposes of the health service and of the services to be provided through the Act: General duty of Secretary of State — (1) It shall continue to be the duty of the Secretary of State t** MAXIMUM TEXT REACHED, FURTHER FULL INFORMATION CAN BE OBTAINED DIRECTLY FROM THE CHARITY**
