What the charity does: Vine Trust is an international development charity that collaborates through partnership projects to bring sustainable change for families and communities in Peru and Tanzania. A fundamental element of Vine Trust's working model is connecting volunteers to these long-term partnerships. Since its creation in 1985, Vine Trust's activities have grown considerably, responding to needs shared by its partners in Peru and Tanzania. Some key achievements include: ? Delivery of three medical ships to the Amazon Hope Medical Programme in Peru, providing over 2 million medical consultations. ? Introduction of the first ever medical ship on Tanzanian Lake Victoria, delivering over 400,000 medical consultations and becoming the largest healthcare provider to islands in the Kagera region. ? Participation of over 4,200 volunteers in medical, school, or adult team expeditions to Peru and Tanzania. ? Construction of 150 small homes for vulnerable families in the Kilimanjaro region of Tanzania.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The company's objects are: (a) The relief of poverty in the developing world by the provision of facilities including healthcare programmes so that the conditions of the recipients/ beneficiaries, inhabitants, regardless of creed, ethnicity, gender or other distinction, may be improved.
