Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: The JJ Munro Charitable Trust was established by the trustees of the late John Jamieson Munro in order to meet the cost of publishing books with a religious or educational nature in the United Kingdom. The Trustees have determined that in administering the Trust they should: (a) support a particularly Scottish approach to printing and publishing. (b) support local issues in the Stirling area and (c) reflect publications of a local or general Scottish interest which required the support of a trust such as this trust to be viable publishing operations.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The charitable purposes shall specifically include the publication or contribution to the publication of book of a religious or educational nature published within the said area for the benefit of the community.
