Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: In line with the charity's purpose as stated above, the choir is engaged annually in researching Gaelic songs in order to have these arranged for choral performance. The choir meets regularly to learn and practise Gaelic songs in order to compete in the Royal National Mod and perform at other events in the Isle of Lewis and elsewhere. Most of the choir are native Gaelic speakers, and Gaelic is utilised as far as possible within the choir.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The object of the Choir shall be to provide in the interest of social welfare, facilities and assistance to all persons who may have an interest in the furtherance of music, the Gaelic language and the culture which attaches thereto. Competitions at a local or national level which may be of assistance to the foregoing shall also serve as an object of the Choir.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner Basis of independent examiner's statement Independent examiner's statement	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention. My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts. In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] 1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or 2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
