Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Rape Crisis Grampian (RCG) is a voluntary organisation established in response to the urgent need for a specialist service supporting individuals affected by rape, sexual abuse, and exploitation. We provide free, confidential emotional and advocacy support to survivors aged 11 and over, regardless of when the abuse occurred. Our work is grounded in feminist principles, human rights, and equality. These values underpin the nationally accredited Rape Crisis training delivered to all staff and volunteers, ensuring a consistent, trauma-informed, and survivor-centred approach.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The objects of the Company ("the Objects") shall be wholly charitable purposes (the words "charitable purposes" wherever they appear in these Articles shall have the meaning ascribed to them for the purposes of section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 including any statutory modification or re-enactment of that Act for the time being in force which is also regarded as a charitable purpose in relation to the application of the Taxes Acts). In particular the Objects of the Company shall be: 4.1 to relieve the emotional distress of individuals who have been raped or in any way sexually assaulted or abused. and 4.2 to advance the education of the general public and of professional bodies about the nature and extent of sexual violence, to broaden understanding about its prevention and to develop appropriate responses. by encouraging , providing and assisting the development of relevant support services and by working in partnership with other bodies to achieve the objects.
