Tea, coffee and fellowship as required.
Carry out wedding ceremonies and funerals.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

With only 6 church members in full time employment, we are always worried about the constant drain on church funds, and whether we will be able to fund a new Pastor going forward.

Organise and deliver an annual church anniversary weekend where preachers and singers are engaged from places such as Northern Ireland, Southern England and the North of Scotland.

All the finance for the church comes in from church members via collections on a Sunday.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The church does not have a specific policy on reserves, we believe in faithful giving by members.
We also believe in God who will provide for his people.

Details of any deficit

Donated facilities and services (if any)

APPENDIX 3

	Independent examiner's report on the accounts v2
Report to the trustees/members of	Charity name New Cumnock Evangelical Church
Registered charity number	SC019798
On the accounts of the charity for the period	Period start date				Period end date
	Day	Month	Year		Day	Month	Year
	1	10	2023	to	30	9	2024
Set out on pages						(remember to include the page numbers of additional sheets)
Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]
	1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
	2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
