Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of public participation in sport', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: As an anchor, grassroots organisation with over 25 years of experience embedded in some of the most fragile and deprived communities in north Glasgow, our charity is dedicated to supporting vulnerable communities, families, and individuals. We have established positive, safe, and nurturing hubs, that are embedded within our communities, that provide opportunities for support, development and growth. This includes educational group work, wellbeing groups for adults, school holiday programmes consisting of community events and food provision, creative projects, an intensive, holistic family support section, and diversionary programmes for the most at risk young people. We also collaborate with partners and specialists to build a robust network of support and expertise for our communities.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Other defined groups', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 3.1.1 To provide a range of services and organise support activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for young people and families with young people. and 3.1.2 To provide relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage particularly through the provision of services for the benefit of young people and families with young people.
