Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Craigsfarm delivers a place-based people-centred space facilitating locally generated programmes that address the mental health and poverty alleviation priorities of the Craigshill community and neighbouring regeneration areas. Acting as a conduit for accessing resources and services in a single location by clustering community facilities and integrating services we facilitate access to:
-self-service facilities that encourage the community to use the space (community cafe, book exchange, playground)
-referral to targeted services (these could be pop-up events and off-site services)
-community led activities (foster parents' group, wellbeing and health activities, wellbeing for adults with disabilities, hobbies and interests)
-direct services that serve the needs of the community (mental wellbeing and resilience programme and inclusive pre-vocational, non-accredited skill development)

Beneficiaries: 'Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: 4. The company's objects are: ? To facilitate community development ? To advance education and in particular to promote opportunities for learning for the benefit of the community. ? To provide community resources. ? To improve the employability of the community, with a particular focus on young people. ? To improve the health and wellbeing of the community. ? To promote volunteering within the community. ? To promote, establish, operate and support other schemes and projects of similar charitable nature for the benefit of the community in West Lothian. The objects can be achieved by working in partnership with other agencies to benefit the community.
