Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: To foster interest in the history and archaeology of Haddington and its environs through annual programmes of meetings with guest speakers and outings both locally and further afield. To provide information about Haddington using a self guided tours booklet or by the occasional guided tour. To participate in projects to discover more about Haddington's History.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 2 Purposes and objects ('the objects') To foster interest in the history and archaeology of Haddington and its environs through annual programmes of meetings with guest speakers and outings both locally and further afield. Such programmes are to be organised primarily for the benefit of members but meetings also may be made open to non-members at the discretion of the Management Committee. In furtherance of such objects the Society may: a. Foster research into local history and on occasion to publish findings. b. Encourage awareness of the historic fabric of Haddington and of the need to conserve and protect the same, as well as supporting change that is compatible with the nationally important historic character of the Royal Burgh c. Develop an appreciation of wider national or international historical topics in so far as they have impacted on Haddington and its environs

Accounts

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Haddington's History Society

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2026 which are set out on the accompanying pages.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The Charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2006 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The Charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under Section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with these records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material aspect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
