Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health'

What the charity does: The purpose of Cowal Hospice Trust is to support hospice and palliative care services for people in the Cowal area who are affected by life-limiting illness, together with support for their families and carers

Beneficiaries: 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: The Trustees shall from time to time hold, pay or apply or allocate the whole free income of the trust estate and shall from time to time pay or apply the whole capital of the trust estate in accordance with the following:- The establishment of a Hospice for the care and support of the terminally ill with ancillary support for their relatives and those caring for them all without regard to the nature of the terminal illness (hereinafter referred to as 'the primary trust purpose'). That without prejudice to the foregoing generality the Trustees shall endeavour to build and maintain and thereafter administer, through fundraising, grants and charitable donations, a Hospice for the care of the terminally ill and the support of their relative and carers all as specified in the primary trust purpose.

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT

TO THE TRUSTEES OF COWAL HOSPICE TRUST

Scot 211 009.

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31st March 2023 which are set out on pages 1 to 3.

Respective Responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1)(c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanation from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:-

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - To keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - To prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulationshave not been met, or
2. To which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
