Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Perth Theatre and Concert Hall have been central to local cultural life for over 125 years. We create life affirming, shared experiences in the performing arts that ignite the imagination and make living more meaningful. Our world-class venues, award-winning programming and inclusive learning and engagement projects play an essential role in stimulating positive wellbeing within the communities we serve, benefitting the local economy and raising the profile of the area. Located within 90-minutes' travel time of 90% of Scotland's population, we are a lynchpin in the country's arts infrastructure, and we are recognised as a sector leader, influencer, and innovator. Perth Theatre and Concert Hall is the trading name of Horsecross Arts Ltd, the charitable organisation that runs both venues.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: a) To advance education by the encouragement of the performing arts by means of production, presentation, collection, exhibition, collaboration, education and training in performing arts. b) To run arts development and arts education programmes in theatre, music and new media public art in Perth and elsewhere which will promote and encourage creativity, skills development, social and personal development, social inclusion and lifelong learning but only as long as such activities are regarded as charitable in law.
