Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'any other purpose that may reasonably be regarded as analogous to any of the preceding purposes'

What the charity does: Craignish Village Hall provides a welcoming space for a variety of community endeavours, including educational, recreational, social and cultural activities. The vitality of our community is integral to the Hall's purpose and the Hall is looked after by and for residents of the Craignish Peninsula and its environs, respecting the needs of both current and future users. Local individuals, businesses and organisations can hire space for events, groups, meetings. We have a funded Arts Programme that delivers a diverse range of cultural activities from dance, to live music, theatre, art exhibitions, community celidhs, a Gaelic festival and creative workshops. With between 50-60 bookings per month for most of the year, it is a busy space that is well-used by the community. As our local church has closed, we also provide a space for weddings and funerals and other community gatherings.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The said subjects and the buildings erected or to be erected thereon hereinafter referred to as 'the Trust subjects' - are dedicated and shall be held by current and successors in the respective offices of Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer as aforesaid as Trustees in all time coming for the purpose of physical and mental training and recreation and social moral and intellectual development through the medium of reading and recreation rooms, library, lectures, classes, recreations and entertainments or otherwise as may be found expedient of the inhabitants of the Parish of Craignish in the County of Argyll and its immediate vicinity, without distinction of sex or of any political religious or other opinions subject to the provisions of these presents.
