Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document	All Saints' is an unincorporated associate governed by its current constitution, dated November 2011. As a member congregation of the Diocese of Brechin in the Scottish Episcopal Church, it is also governed by the Canon Law of the Scottish Episcopal Church.
Trustee recruitment and appointment	Apart from the Rector, ordinary Vestry members are elected from the congregation at the Annual Meeting. Of the elected members of the Vestry (other than the Secretary and Treasurer if they are also members of the Vestry) at least one shall retire each year and shall not be eligible for the re-election that year. The Rector is appointed both by the Vestry and the Bishop of Diocese. New Vestry members are given an induction package outlining their roles and responsibilities. The Vestry secretary regularly updates other members of the Vestry relevant changes in legislation and best practices in relation to charities.

Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes	The Charity has been established for exclusively charitable purposes, primarily for the advancement of religion and to provide public benefit.
Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects	All Saints' has a small but welcoming congregation whose objective is to advance the mission of the Christian church through worship, service and fellowship. We aim to achieve this by supporting existing congregational members through regular weekly services and encouraging new members by way of outreach work.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period	The weekly attendance at church remains strong, averaging 34 per Sunday service, with peaks on Remembrance Day, Christmas and Easter services. Concerts organized by Canon Ian Young still prove an effective form of outreach to the wider community as well as 'bring-a-friend-to-church' services which has resulted in two more families becoming regular attendees. The congregation gives good support in offering warmth and friendliness in their welcome both to new members and to visitors. Those who joined us from nearby churches that have closed are now important and much respected members of the congregation. During the year, the church benefited from the generosity of Andrew and Helen Thriepland of Fingask who donated the proceeds of a piano recital and a garden opening to All Saints', as well as hosting a church picnic. Also, a Christmas Fayre, held in Errol, and organized by Becky Gunn, raised money for all churches in the Carse of Gowrie. Certain members of the congregation have been trained as Worship Leaders under the guidance of Canon Young and have been subsequently licensed by the Bishop of Brechin.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity’s policy on reserves

The total unrestricted reserves at the year ended 31st August 2025 amounted to a deficit of £114 (2024: a surplus of £2,711) and total restricted reserves amounted to £7,518 (2024: £7,518).

Reserves will be maintained to ensure that the charity can meet its charitable obligations. Funds held in excess of these requirements will be expended in accordance with the charity’s objectives. It is the charity’s policy to endeavour to retain sufficient reserves to cover 3 months expenditure which is calculated £12,234 (2024: £12,581).

Details of any deficit

During the year the charity had a deficit of £2,825 (2024: Surplus of £2,178).

Donated facilities and services (if any)

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner		The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement		My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement		In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or - to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
