What the charity does: St Vincent's chapel is a congregation whose purposes are to worship God and serve the local community. The chapel is part of the Diocese of Edinburgh in the Scottish Episcopal Church (SEC) and is subject to the Canons of the SEC and to the resolutions of its General Synod. St Vincent's pays an annual quota to the Diocese of Edinburgh. It is represented on the Diocesan Synod by our Priest-in-charge and Lay Representative. The normal pattern of worship is the 1929 Scottish Prayer Book Eucharist on Sunday at 10.30am. There is also Evensong at 6.00pm on Sundays, and Eucharist on Thursdays at 11.00am. An informal social group The Invincibles meet monthly. Many other enjoyable social events are organised to raise money for named charities. The building is extensively used throughout the year by external groups, particularly musicians and local residents. The Edinburgh Sacred Arts Foundation hosted several events at St Vincent's during August.
