Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of public participation in sport', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'any other purpose that may reasonably be regarded as analogous to any of the preceding purposes'

What the charity does: The Blantyre Youth Development Team (BYDT) provides a wide range of services and opportunities for young people. Currently, BYDT runs 24 youth groups based at Terminal One Youth Centre in Blantyre, as well as outreach programmes in Coatshill, Burnbank and Hillhouse. In addition to generic youth work activities, the charity delivers a variety of creative services, including music performance and tuition, music technology, drama, dance, and outdoor activities such as a mobile climbing wall. BYDT also actively promotes and facilitates young people's participation in active citizenship and community involvement.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: To promote the benefit of the youth of Blantyre and its environs without distinction of political, religious or other opinions by associating the Local Authorities, Voluntary organisation and the youth thereof in a common effort to advance education and to provide facilities in the interests of social welfare for recreation and leisure-time occupation with the object of improving the conditions of the life for the said youth and furtherance thereof but not otherwise to secure the establishment of a Centre and co-operate with the Local statutory Authority in the maintenance and management of the Centre for activities promoted by the Centre
