Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of animal welfare'

What the charity does: Roslin Foundation supports research and development in biosciences relating to agriculture and biomedicine to advance knowledge, innovation and societal benefit. We achieve this primarily through funding research projects, facilities, equipment, studentships and early stage innovation that align with our charitable purposes and the strategic focus of the Roslin Institute. We enable high impact science by investing in capability, skills, collaborations and translational opportunities, including projects that improve animal health, welfare, sustainability, food security and human health relevance. Our work is carried out for the benefit of, or in association with the Roslin Institute, ensuring scientific excellence, strategic alignment and appropriate governance. We actively raise awareness, steward charitable funds, monitor impact outcomes and maintain responsible oversight.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The Company's object is to support research and business development in the field of biosciences as it relates to agriculture and biomedicine, to the benefit of, or in association with the Roslin Institute.
