Activities

Activities: 'It does none of these'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Sea Cadets do a wide variety of activities focusing on water, adventure, and leadership, including sailing, powerboating, rowing, seamanship, first aid, engineering, band training, and outdoor challenges like orienteering, all while building confidence, discipline, and life skills for future careers and independence. They earn qualifications (like BTECs, RYA certs), participate in camps, parades, and community events, and develop teamwork, leadership, and self-discipline through hands-on experiences.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: 2.1 The charitable purpose of the Unit (the Purpose) is to promote the development of young people in achieving their physical, intellectual and social potential as individuals and as responsible citizens by the provision of education and leisure time activities using a nautical theme and in accordance with the principles, ethos and practices of the Marine Society & Sea Cadets (MSSC). In furtherance of the Purpose, the Unit may: a. offer young people a structured environment in which to develop. b. provide access to education and training including (but not restricted to): sailing (inshore and offshore), paddle sports, power boating, seamanship, navigation, marine engineering, cooking, music, first aid, drill, piping, and public service. c. provide opportunities for young people to obtain a range of qualifications. and d. provide opportunities for community involvement.
