Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Brook is a national charity supporting people with their sexual health and wellbeing. We offer a range of services to support our mission of helping people to live healthier lives. Our offer includes clinical services, relationships and sex education, outreach in community settings, wellbeing programmes and counselling. Our life-course approach to sexual health and wellbeing means that people can benefit from our holistic services at any stage of their life. Brook Scotland is a subsidiary of the parent charity Brook Young People which delivers services across England and Wales. Brook Scotland is currently dormant, but is retained by the parent charity as we aim to secure contracts to deliver our services in Scotland.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The objects are to promote the health, particularly sexual health of young people and those most vulnerable to sexual ill health through providing information, education and outreach, counselling, confidential clinical and medical services, professional advice and training .
