Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: To positively impact the wellbeing of individuals who have been affected by childhood abuse. Vision - To provide a safe, inclusive and supportive space for individuals who have been affected by childhood abuse to be seen, heard and start to rebuild their sense of self-worth. Mission - To offer a range of holistic and structured supports with a clear purpose for individuals who have been affected by childhood abuse as quickly as we can for as long as they require our support within the context of a trusting relationship. Activities – Provision of holistic, person-centred services to individuals of all genders who have been impacted by any form of childhood abuse across Scotland either face-to-face from our offices in Alloa, online or by telephone, with a continuing specialism in supporting individuals who have been abused in care including: - emotional support - counselling and other therapeutic interventions - group work - access to records - campaigning

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community', 'Other charities or voluntary bodies'

Objectives: The Company's objects are to positively impact, for the public benefit, the wellbeing of individuals who have been affected by childhood abuse, within the Area of Benefit without distinction of gender, race, sexual orientation or political or religious opinion by: walking alongside individuals who have been affected by childhood abuse and empowering them to live a full and healthy life, where they are learning and coping and reaching their full potential.
