Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: The purpose of the charity is to encourage, enable and assist young people to responsible adulthood. We do this through regular meetings throughout the year, meeting on parade nights on Monday and Wednesday where drill, colours and training is provided in boating skills, first aid and other responsibilities. The young people can achieve a great deal by attending additional training weekends and developing their knowledge and skills in all aspects of boating, catering and other activities.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: 2.1 The charitable purpose of the Unit (the Purpose) is to promote the development of young people in achieving their physical, intellectual and social potential as individuals and as responsible citizens by the provision of education and leisure time activities using a nautical theme and in accordance with the principles, ethos and practices of the Marine Society & Sea Cadets (MSSC). In furtherance of the Purpose, the Unit may: a. offer young people a structured environment in which to develop. b. provide access to education and training including (but not restricted to): sailing (inshore and offshore), paddle sports, power boating, seamanship, navigation, marine engineering, cooking, music, first aid, drill, piping, and public service. c. provide opportunities for young people to obtain a range of qualifications. and d. provide opportunities for community involvement.
