Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education','the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: RAF Air Cadets (aged 12–20) participate in aviation-focused activities like flying, gliding, and flight simulators, alongside adventure training, shooting, and sports. They develop leadership, teamwork, and technical skills in STEM, cyber security, and radio communications, often gaining BTEC qualifications or the Duke of Edinburgh's Award. Key activities and opportunities include: Flying and Gliding: Opportunities to fly in RAF fixed-wing or rotary aircraft, including solo flying and the Air Cadet Pilot Scheme. Military Training: Fieldcraft, drill, and annual camps at RAF bases in the UK and overseas. Adventure Training: Rock climbing, mountain biking, sailing, and hiking. Skills Development: First aid, band/music training, and radio communications. Education: STEM-focused learning, cyber courses, and vocational qualifications

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The purpose of the Squadron Association ('the Association') is to fully support the squadron commander to further the objects of the Air Training Corps ('the ATC') as contained in the Schedule to the Royal Warrant as amended from time to time but in particular to support activities which foster the spirit of adventure amongst the squadron's cadets and develop their qualities of leadership and good citizenship.
