Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: The Royal Air Force Air Cadets (RAFAC) is a UK youth organisation sponsored by the RAF, designed to inspire and develop young people through aviation, adventure, and community service. It provides opportunities for ages 12–20 to gain skills in leadership, teamwork, and citizenship, while encouraging a practical interest in aviation and the RAF. Cadets take part in flying, sports, adventure training, and STEM activities, all within a safe, inclusive environment. The organisation's aims are to promote aviation knowledge, provide training useful in both military and civilian life, foster the spirit of adventure, and build qualities of responsibility and good citizenship.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The purpose of the Squadron Association ('the Association') is to fully support the squadron commander to further the objects of the Air Training Corps ('the ATC') as contained in the Schedule to the Royal Warrant as amended from time to time but in particular to support activities which foster the spirit of adventure amongst the squadron's cadets and develop their qualities of leadership and good citizenship.
