Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Air Cadet Squadrons offer young people a wide range of opportunities to develop leadership skills, discipline, and teamwork in a dynamic and supportive environment. Through various activities like flying, gliding, adventure training, and community service, cadets gain valuable experiences that build confidence and personal responsibility. Additionally, cadets can earn qualifications in areas like first aid, public speaking, and aviation, while also taking part in local, regional, and national events. These activities not only help cadets develop key life skills but also promote a sense of pride, camaraderie, and commitment to their communities.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The purpose of the Squadron Association ('the Association') is to fully support the squadron commander to further the objects of the Air Training Corps ('the ATC') as contained in the Schedule to the Royal Warrant as amended from time to time but in particular to support activities which foster the spirit of adventure amongst the squadron's cadets and develop their qualities of leadership and good citizenship.
