Objectives and activitiesCharitable purposes

To assist the squadron in meeting the aims of the RAF Air Cadets: To promote and encourage a practical interest in aviation and the Royal Air Force (RAF) among young people. To provide training which will be useful in both the Services and civilian life. To encourage a spirit of adventure and to develop qualities of leadership and good citizenship.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Flying/Gliding instruction, marksmanship, first aid, knowledge of aviation and the RAF, excursions, RAF station visits, adventure training, DofE award scheme, volunteering, fundraising.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

During the financial year, cadets have participated in residential activities all over the country and around the globe. Members from the unit participated in the Royal International Air Tattoo, an Adventurous Training Camp to Fairbourne in Wales, Annual Camp to RAF Lossiemouth, National Air and Space Camp, and other training opportunities that broadened cadets' experiences and personal development.

The Squadron achieved notable success in competitive activities, securing second place in a drill competition and participating in swimming and athletics events. Senior cadets also benefited from a partnership with Edinburgh College, which supported the development of knowledge and skills required for Senior and Master Classification badges.

The Squadron continued to play an active role in the local community through participation in Midlothian and Loanhead Gala Day parades, as well as volunteering at larger events including the Edinburgh Marathon and the Loanhead Firework Display. Fundraising and recruitment activities included a successful Gala Day stall and a well-attended quiz night, both of which helped raise funds and increase awareness of opportunities available to young people within the organisation.

These activities have provided cadets with valuable opportunities to develop leadership, teamwork, confidence, and practical life skills, supporting their progression within the Squadron and contributing to their personal growth and development.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner		The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement		My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement		In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*] <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
