Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations, loans, gifts or pensions to individuals','It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: The charity continues to support the Macindoe's to host regular meetings in their retirement accommodation. They also host similar type meetings in their home . They sometimes travel to provide spiritual support to Christian communities primarily on the west coast of Scotland, including Port Ban Holiday Park. They are an integral part of River Church in Helensburgh and Rock Community Church in Dumbarton. We were exploring the possibility of Alistair undertaking some Bible teaching in Africa however, due to Alistair's Parkinson's Disease, this is no longer a viable option.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The purpose of the Trust is to propagate the Christian Gospel in the United Kingdom and elsewhere in the world (primarily through the Macindoe) in accordance with the doctrines set out in the Schedule annexed and subscribed as relative hereto for the: advancement of the Christian faith in such a manner as the trustees shall.
